Trumpeter joins MCA for spring concert

Vaughn Nark, a professional trumpeter and Mount Carmel native, was the guest soloist during Mount Carmel Area School District music department's spring concert Saturday evening in the Richard F. Beierschmitt Auditorium. Nark performed two songs, "Send in the Clowns" and "America The Beautiful," with the symphonic band, directed by Bernie Stellar. Nark thanked his many supporters and former instructors, and made special mention of his mother, Virginia, his late father, Leon F., and his late brother, Leon D. BELOW: Emily Stasick, a member of the Mount Carmel Area High School Symphonic Band, directed by Bernie Stellar, plays the trombone.
